3. Each participating organization has had an opportunity to comment on the Terms of Reference and only minor changes have been proposed. A version incorporating the proposed revisions is attached. Among the modifications is the method by which the "View of the Future" will be coordinated. Rather than being circulated for comment, the "View" will be considered as an NFIB agenda item on 12 December (a draft has been distributed). Other principal changes include a widening of the study's scope to include intelligence dissemination
